Council Discussion:

- Councilor Evans – asked when Council is scheduled to discuss Phase 3 of renter protections; asked if TOPA would be included in the discussion; stated his interest in including TOPA in the renter protections plan.
- Councilor Keating – stated concerns about approving the Lucy Apartments tax exemption without more information about the contractor and labor practices; noted support for stronger labor standards; noted campaign finance information can be found on the Oregon Secretary of State website; stated support for TOPA, a renewed alternative response program like CAHOOTS, and his opposition to the Flock camera contract.
- Councilor Yeh – stated support for adding TOPA to Phase 3 renter protections.
- Councilor Groves – stated support for adding TOPA to Phase 3 renter protections; asked for an update on the status of a new mobile crisis alternative response program; stated his support for living wage jobs.
- Councilor Leech – stated support for including TOPA in Phase 3 renter protections; noted a memo on alternative response services is coming by the end of the month; stated the need for broader discussion on housing incentives; stated continued interest in learning about the Flock contract and cameras; thanked the public for ongoing engagement.
- Councilor Clark – stated interest in reviewing the Lucy Apartments tax exemption application; asked for clarification on the applicant and project timeline; stated desire for a full discussion before deciding; stated intent to wait for the Mayor to bring the item back before making a motion to postpone.
- Councilor Kashinsky – stated interest in continued discussion of TOPA; asked whether concerns about the Lucy Apartments were specific to the developer or general policy issues; noted Council had already awarded funding to the project; stated the importance of distinguishing between policy review and project-specific decisions.
- Councilor Zelenka – noted the Budget Committee motion was for a report on a CAHOOTS-like services, not a work session; stated the report is expected by the end of October and discussion will follow; thanked the speakers opposing Flock; stated support for ending the contract with Flock; thanked the carpenters union for raising concerns but noted the issue seemed to be about general policy, not a specific contractor; stated concern about derailing the Lucy project over broader policy issues.
- Councilor Evans – noted experience with a project on 13th and Olive where tax breaks were given without prevailing wage; stated opposition to giving tax exemptions to developers who don't pay prevailing wage; stated he could not support the Lucy Apartments exemption without more information; asked for a pause in the decision to allow council discussion on labor standards.
- Councilor Zelenka – noted the 13th and Olive project led to a two-year tax exemption moratorium and major reforms to the Multi-Unit Property Tax Exemption (MUPTE); stated LIRHPTE is different and has been used for many projects this year; stated broader policy discussions take time and likely can't be resolved within the current 60-day window; stated concern about delaying the Lucy project over general labor policy issues.

- Councilor Clark – noted Cornerstone Community Housing has done important work in the community; stated concern about labor issues raised by the carpenters; asked for policy improvements to ensure fair compensation; stated support for better labor standards in LIRHPTE but cautioned against assuming the Lucy project is violating them; stated the project is urgently needed and should not be delayed.
- Mayor Knudson – noted appreciation for labor representatives sharing concerns; stated wage theft is a serious issue and is not supported by City policy; noted Cornerstone Community Housing has undergone thorough public review; stated the need for broader discussion on how community benefits are delivered through housing programs.
- Councilor Yeh – noted concern about illegal labor practices; asked if the City has systems in place to detect wage theft; asked what the City's response would be if such issues were found; asked whether any issues had been found with Cornerstone and whether the City had proactively checked.
- Councilor Evans – noted LIRHPTE projects under four stories are exempt from prevailing wage; stated concern about the narrow path this creates for labor protections; stated past support for LIRHPTE but objected to exemptions that allow developers to avoid paying prevailing wage.
- Councilor Keating – asked if Council could ask questions of the representatives from the Western States Regional Council of Carpenters during this meeting.
- Councilor Clark – asked whether Council could reconsider the vote on the Lucy Apartments tax exemption if new information came to light after the vote.
- Councilor Kashinsky – noted Council decisions must follow specific code-based criteria; stated the Lucy Apartments application met those criteria; noted no public comments had been received at the time of review; stated prevailing wage is not part of the current criteria.

7. PRIORITY GOAL ACTION: Adoption of a Resolution Approving a Low-Income Rental Housing Property Tax Exemption for The Lucy Apartments – Item Pulled.

MOTION: Councilor Evans, seconded by Councilor Leech, moved to adopt the resolution attached as Attachment B to this AIS, approving a Low-Income Rental Housing Property Tax Exemption for property located at 860 Hunsaker Lane.

Council Discussion:

- Councilor Keating – noted intent to vote yes on the motion to allow progress while reserving the right to reconsider; asked how the local carpenters union investigates wage theft; asked how wage theft could occur before construction begins; asked whether concerns expressed related to subcontractors rather than the developer; stated interest in hearing directly from both Cornerstone Community Housing and the carpenters at the next meeting.
- Councilor Evans – noted intent to vote yes based on the criteria presented; stated objection to the exemption from prevailing wage requirements for LIRHPTE projects under a certain height; stated concern about developers taking advantage of legal loopholes at the expense of workers.

- Councilor Leech – noted that MUPTE projects require contractors to provide documentation of proper licensing, insurance, and compliance with labor laws; stated similar requirements could be applied to LIRHPTE; noted prevailing wage is difficult for the City to enforce due to State jurisdiction; stated support for prevailing wage but acknowledged it is not currently required by law.
- Councilor Groves – noted concern about wage theft practices beyond prevailing wage issues; described exploitative payment methods affecting vulnerable workers; stated discomfort with making decisions under tight timelines; emphasized the need for broader discussions on labor protections and housing development; noted Cornerstone’s positive reputation and limited resources; clarified that some funding comes from future tax exemptions and the Affordable Housing Trust Fund.
- Councilor Keating – asked about last week’s hearing about changes to the LIRHPTE code.

VOTE: 8:0 PASSED

IN FAVOR: Kashinsky, Keating, Zelenka, Yeh, Clark, Evans, Leech, and Groves.
